SC no.51/21
State vs Ashok Kumar & ors.
FIR no.158/20
PS Dayalpur

02.12.2021

Present: IO Inspector Vinod Ahlawat in person.
Ms.Pooja Roy, Ld.Counsel for accused Shubham /applicant.

The applicant is seeking interim bail for a period of one week in order to enable him to attend the marriage ceremony of his real sister which is going to be solemnized on 07.12.2021.

IO has filed his report wherein he has confirmed that the applicant's real sister namely, Priya is going to be married on 07.12.2021.

It is submitted by the Ld.Counsel for the applicant that the applicant is the only brother of three sisters out of whom one has already been married and second one is going to be married on 02.12.2021. She further submits that as per the Hindu Customs, presence of the applicant is necessary during various rituals/ceremonies related to his sister's marriage.

Considering the submissions made by the Ld.Counsel for the applicant and adopting humanitarian approach, this court is of the opinion that the applicant deserves to be released on interim bail in order to attend his sister's marriage. Therefore, the application is allowed. It is directed that the applicant be released on interim bail for a period of one week, subject to his filing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount. The period of one week shall be reckoned from the date of his release from the jail. It is further directed that the applicant shall not approach or intimidate any of the prosecution witnesses during the entire interim bail period. He shall surrender before the Jail Superintendent on the expiry of the interim bail period.
